LATIN AMERICA: A STUDENT'S GUIDE TO REFERENCE RESOURCES

This guide brings together reference materials in the social sciences for the study of Latin America. The interdisciplinary nature of a bibliography devoted to the study of a geographic area necessitates great selectivity. However, other students guides with related sources of information are available at the Reference Desk Caribbeana, Spanish Literature, Anthropology, Economics, and Folklore.

Materials dealing with individual countries of Latin America have not been listed here, since they are easily identifiable by using the subject catalogues.

The Government Documents collection on the second floor, McLennan Library, is a major source of statistical yearbooks and the publications of government and international organizations such as the United Nations Commission on Latin America. Most documents holdings are not found in the McGill Union Catalogue, but are listed only in the Government Documents catalogue on the second floor where a librarian is available to help you.

As a member of the Center for Research Libraries, McGill benefits from access to their specialized holdings on Latin America. Of special interest are the Center's copies of records of the British Foreign Office and the U.S. Department of State. Further details about the use of CRL and the extent of its collections is available at the Reference desk and Interlibrary Loans Office.

All locations for items in this bibliography have not been cited. If you wish to obtain additional locations, please check the McGill Catalogue under the entry used here.

If you have any difficulty using this bibliography or the sources cited in it, please do not hesitate to request assistance at the Reference Desk.

This bibliography was compiled by Suzy M. Slavin, Reference Department, McLennan Library.
